

In-depth
Case Study

Project: CIGNA Retirement Statements
Segment: Transactional/Statements/Direct Marketing/Loyalty

Program objectives

- The ability to produce customizable statements for a diverse audience.
- Improve readability of the statement and present information in a manner that is easily understood.
- A flexibility in the design to accommodate future changes without major redevelopment costs.

Significant results reported by user

During the year since full launch, combined with other programs, CIGNA saw:

- A 10.5% increase in plan participation (participants contributing savings to the plan for the first time).
- A 5.3% increase in net ongoing contributions (participants increasing the amount they save).
- Other educational initiatives still being measured include changes in asset allocation and use of loans.
- ROI was realized by CIGNA in two and one half years with subsequent annual savings in excess of $1,000,000.
- 82% of the individuals surveyed reported a significant improvement, and 96% reported the statement easier to read and understand.
